Dear Mr Hill,

RE: GUIDELINES.

Thank you for your letter of 24th July 2015. Your explanation is unacceptable. The five clauses of prohibition of depiction of lawful activities contravene the Human Rights Act (Freedom of Expression).

You must therefore delete them, failing which enforcement action can be taken in Court (of the type being organised by Backlash in the Andrew Holland case).

Yours for freedom of expression,

E. Goodman
Chair of CAC.
